THE SALE.

For the Intelligencer.
 To mention a shade in the gloom of night,
 Three Vultures shaped their dusky flight:
 Where Garfield sat in doleful plight.
 Lost! Lost! Lost!
 The hawk-like bird would find his prey:
 The hawk-like bird of the Cameron ring:
 And Conkling, the cuckoo of tireless wing:
 Lost! Lost! Lost!
 Frowning, they glared on his craven lord:
 Whom shrink against, but spoke no word,
 Whilst the pulchre of his gizzard stirred.
 Lost! Lost! Lost!
 "We have come," said the vultures, "to save the state.
 We have come to make you truly great.
 We have come to make you to our mate."
 Lost! Lost! Lost!
 "Say that you sell your dastard soul,
 Say that we shall bear control
 Of all your acts, or the hell shall toll!"
 Lost! Lost! Lost!

And the man of Mentor bowed his head,
 As a deep draw from his gizzard sped.
 And the last men shed from his honor bed.
 Lost! Lost! Lost!

Lost, from that moment, the voice of Maine,
 Sick grew his heart of a deadly pain.
 An he fled in grief to the wilds of Maine.
 Lost! Lost! Lost!

Card from Attorney Swift.

To the Editor of the Times:
 Your Lancaster correspondent, in his letter published yesterday, has wholly misrepresented me in his account of the transaction relative to the claims of Abraham Eberly against the estate of Martin Snavely, deceased. The facts are these: Mr. Eberly had two claims against this estate—one that he held as attorney-in-fact for Mr. Snavely, the other a claim account of his. The first widow had released for a valuable consideration and the second was barred by the statute of limitations. In law both claims were worthless, and Mr. Eberly agreed to give one-half of whatever could be collected by suit or compromise. The claims were collected and Mr. Eberly was paid the one-half as per contract, and his voucher in the widow's claim stipulates that one-half was retained as attorney-in-fact. The introduction of my name by the writer of the letter in question was unwarranted if not malicious, as my professional reputation is unimpeachable, and to which any reputable citizen or the members of the Lancaster will cheerfully testify.
 J. W. F. SWIFT,
 Lancaster, October 21, 1880.

Their Rights and Duties by Law.
 I have suffered from a kidney difficulty for the past ten years, accompanied with nervousness. Physicians gave me but temporary relief, but after using the medicine of Dr. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, my nervous system was entirely relieved. My age is 77 years, and I recommend this great remedy to all suffering from nervous troubles.
MRS. MARY REESE.
 Exton, Pa.

Factory Facts.
 Close confinement, careful attention to all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, jaundice, indigestion, poor blood, inactive liver, kidneys and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicines in the world cannot help them unless they get out doors or use Hop Bitters, made of the purest and best ingredients, and especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rose cheeks in them. Some need suffer if they will use them freely. They cost but a trifle. See another column.

INVESTIGATION!

DR. GREENE has successfully treated over 1,000 of the most difficult chronic (so-called) curable cases during a nine months' practice. The most of them had been the rounds of the leading physicians of Lancaster county. DR. GREENE is ready at any time to meet a committee of the Lancaster County Medical Society at the Opera House elsewhere to discuss the merits of Omnipathy and prove its superiority over all other paths in vogue. The people are greatly interested and demand the fullest investigation. Invalids are every week dying in this county whose lives could be saved. Is there any subject about which the masses are more concerned? Is there any subject about which the masses are more interested? Is there any subject about which the masses are more anxious to know? Dr. G. originated and is now the owner of 23 Medical Pills. He especially warns the public against the numerous counterfeits now offered the people. Dr. G. owns an exclusive office business. Patients who cannot call at his office may send full description of ailments. Hundreds of deaths have occurred here in nine months; only two in his practice. Consultations free. Catarrh cured for 50 cents. Cure quick for Catarrh sent to any address 50 cents.
